ABOUT US

RHI is committed to making the ever-expanding urban realm more livable, beautiful, and functional.

We are a Small, Women-owned business.

Our current planning work encompasses a broad variety of projects, including comprehensive plans, small area plans, multimodal transportation projects, urban design guidelines, and open space planning.

Our engagement work focuses on creating forums and processes that allow for open and equitable opportunities for public input, for the exchange of ideas and strategies, and for the creation of plans that can substantially result in communities that are fair and just for all.
